A Message from Supervisor Jon Kaiman

We're gearing up for a fun-filled season of events in the Town of North Hempstead. Don't miss the cultural delight of our Asian American Festival or the pageantry of our Memorial Day Fireworks show commemorating our nation's fallen heroes. The picturesque Harbor Links Executive Golf Course is now open, and you can now sign up to join our recently renovated pools at Tully Park and Manorhaven Beach Park. This is just a sampling of the festivals and recreational activities that North Hempstead has to offer this summer.

Asian American Festival SATURDAY, MAY 18th

North Hempstead Beach Park
Noon to 6:00 p.m.

Celebrating our growing ethnic diversity, Supervisor Jon Kaiman and the North Hempstead Town Board will be hosting the fourth annual Asian American Festival – a beachfront gala of food, folk art and performance from the cultures of Japan, India, China, Korea and Pakistan.

You can take a "Tour of Nations" as you stroll down the boardwalk. Along the way you can visit our cultural vendors, and then you can make your way to our food pavilion to sample various culinary delights from across Asia.

The festival will also feature K-pop, Bollywood, Chinese puppeteers, a Japanese farmer's market, Korean BBQ and much more!

We thank all our co-sponsors: WAC Lighting, Chinese World Journal, the Pakistan Voice, Kiss, and Shanghai Commercial Bank.

Harbor Links Golf Course

Showcasing scenic fairways and meticulously manicured greens, the magnificent Harbor Links Golf Course is now open for the season.
